New Hutton Honors Course with Two Weeks in Paris!

HON-H 251 “Reading the City: Parisian Spaces”
A second 8-weeks course for Spring 2019 with an additional two weeks spent in Paris.
Taught by Professor Alison Calhoun

• Discover the City of Lights from the unique perspective of reading, and compare the types of spaces found in Paris with spaces that have a similar affect here in Bloomington.
• Preference given to Hutton Honors College students, but all may apply.
• Information Sessions:
  o Sept. 18, 1-2 pm, Global & Intl Studies Building 3067
  o Sept. 26, 2-3 pm, Hutton Honors College Great Room
  o Oct. 2, 5:30-7:00 pm, as part of Hutton International Night at the HHC
• Deadlines: Priority deadline is Oct. 5; final deadline is Oct. 26
• Contact Prof. Vance (bvance@indiana.edu) for details regarding possible French credits.

Scan here for more info
https://hiep.indiana.edu/hhsa/upcoming-programs/france-2019.html