Required Text: Sentieri. Attraverso l'Italia contemporanea, 2nd Edition
Julia M. Cozzarelli
Vista Higher Learning . Textbook + access code for Supersite.

Welcome to M100 Beginning Italian I. This is a computer enhanced course, which is a combination of traditional classroom time and online instruction. It involves independent work by students, a portion of which will be performed online on the Textbook Sentieri Vista Higher Learning Supersite. Part of the work will be done in class with your instructor (MWF), and part will be done online, and will include reading, listening, completing exercises, posting writing assignments and recording your speech on the Supersite. This syllabus gives precise day by day instructions. Homework and practice on the supersite is assigned every day of the week in order to guarantee daily interaction with the language. Practice and homework must be completed by the due dates indicated on the supersite. No late work will be accepted for grading.

WRITTEN FINAL EXAM:

10:15 a.m.-12:15 p.m., Wed., December 12

ON BEHALF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH AND ITALIAN WE ASK THAT YOU BE AWARE THAT NO SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS CAN BE MADE TO ACCOMMODATE EARLY DEPARTURE.

Learning Goals and Objectives:

This course presents the first principles of Italian language, geography, and culture. Each day you will be involved in a broad variety of assignments and activities that will help you build your proficiency in the Italian language. If you participate as requested, the course will enable you to communicate in Italian from the first day of class. And if you study and participate in class, by the end of this course you will be able to achieve several learning goals.

Listening

You will be able to understand familiar words and basic sentences concerning yourself and a variety of familiar topics (e.g. family, travel, food, some current events, technology, professions, etc.) when people speak slowly and clearly.

Reading

You will be able to read short, simple texts. You will be able to utilize reading strategies to find specific, predictable information in simple everyday materials such as advertisements, menus and brief personal communications.

Speaking

You will be able to use the target language with a basic level of conversational fluency and precision on familiar topics using limited vocabulary, grammar, and memorized phrases. You will be able to ask and answer a limited number of simple questions in areas of immediate need or on familiar topics. You will be able to use simple phrases and sentences to describe where you live and people you know.

Writing

You will be able to write short, simple messages dealing with everyday issues. You will be able to describe, in basic sentences, themselves, your friends and family, your immediate surroundings, and your daily routines.

Cultural Awareness

You will be able to give examples of the relationship between language and culture. You will be able to identify some characteristics of the target culture and distinguish patterns from stereotypes. You will be able to note similarities and differences between home and target cultures.

Reflectivity

You will be able to reflect, in English and, to a limited extent, in the target language, on personal experiences while learning a new language. You will begin to identify your personal learning style.

Our hope is that your enthusiasm and confidence will grow steadily and we look forward to helping you reach these goals.

Important Policies and Information:

Attendance

Students are allowed 3* absences (excused or unexcused), BUT we would prefer that you have none. Daily upkeep and contributions count for a lot in this class. **Each additional absence after 3, unless excused (e.g., illness when accompanied by a medical note or family emergency.), will lower your final grade by 2%.*

It is your responsibility to provide a valid medical note to your instructor within a week of your absence. The note must state that you were unable to attend class due to illness.

We will not accept long-term medical certificates unless they are processed by the Office of Disability Services for Students and delivered within two weeks from the beginning of the semester.

*In evening sections only 2 absences are permitted

*If you miss a class it is your responsibility to obtain homework assignments and notes from classmates.

Lates. Of course, we prefer you come late than not at all (meglio tardi che mai), but three lates equal one absence.

Final exam policy:

A student who:

- has NO MORE THAN ONE absence, and
- earns an average grade of 90% or higher on the four in class written exams/quizzes will have the option to be excused from taking the final exam. Students who earn and choose this option will be awarded a grade equal to the average of his/her four unit exam grades on the final exam. However, they must attend class until the last day of the semester and complete the final review.

If you decide to take the final exam you will get the grade that you earn on it no matter if it is higher or lower from the average of four unit exams.

Make-up Assessments

Make-up exams, quizzes, or other assessments. There will be no make-up exams or quizzes, except in extraordinary cases (e.g., illness accompanied by a medical note, family emergency, etc.).

Incompletes

A final grade of I (Incomplete) is rarely assigned in this course, and may only be considered an option in cases where an unexpected, extreme situation—such as a personal or medical emergency—prevents a student from completing the final major assignment(s) of the course. A student must be passing in order to be considered for an incomplete and the request must be made after the automatic “W” deadline has passed. A petition for an incomplete must be accompanied by appropriate and verifiable documentation and should be presented to your instructor.

Note: Incompletes are not issued due to chronic missed work or absences over the course of the semester; a “withdrawal” is more appropriate for such students (see next section).

Withdrawals

The last day to withdraw from the course with an automatic “W” is Sunday, October 21st. You will have received several grades by then and should be able to make an informed decision about continuing in the course.

Cutting and Pasting & Google Translator

Cutting and pasting from any website without proper bibliographical citation—even a two- or three-word phrase—is considered plagiarism. Please do not even attempt this; it, too, will be considered an infraction of the University Honesty Policy. See your teacher right away if you have difficulty expressing in the Italian language what you would like to say in your componimenti or presentazioni.

Google Translator or any similar translation tools (human or electronic source) are NOT PERMITTED for any aspect of our courses and any evidence that they have been used will be considered an infraction of the University Honesty Policy (resulting in a “0” for the assignment and formal university consequences). Please do not even attempt this. It’s just not worth it.

Homework

Homework will be assigned every day and will include activities from the Supersite. Supersite work is worth 14% of your final grade. It is essential that you complete homework in order to be successful in this class. The computer-graded assignments are for credit only, and they will constitute 70% of your grade; the instructor-graded activities will be for a grade, and they will constitute 30% of your grade. We reserve the right to reset any activities if we notice that you do not put forth your best effort. Your grade will be reduced by 10% of the earned points for every subsequent day you submit the assignment past the due date.

Preparation & participation

Class preparation and participation are VERY IMPORTANT components of this class and will help you to maximize your ability to communicate in Italian. Class participation is going to help you to be successful during your final oral interview.

Grading of class participation:

“A” student (90-100%)	Initiates interaction, volunteers and participates actively in discussions and group activities. Speaks continuously in Italian for asking/answering questions, in class discussions and group activities. Is always prepared, answers readily when called upon.
“B” student (80-89%)	Participates actively in group activities, but passively in discussions. Occasionally resorts to English, but continuously speaks in Italian when asking/answering questions, in group activities and during class discussions. Is almost always prepared, usually answers when called upon.
“C” student (70-79%)	Participates more passively than actively in group activities and discussions. Often resorts to English and is often not prepared for class, sometimes unable to answer.
“D” student (60-69%)	Rarely participates in group activities and class discussions, and is generally unprepared for class. Speaks mostly English and is mostly unable to answer.

You are expected to prepare and review the topics indicated under the In classe column before coming to class. Watch the lectures that introduce the material (Canvas: Pages) prior to coming to class. This daily assignment is KEY to your success in this course! You will self-evaluate your preparation and participation throughout the semester and your instructor will assign you a grade based on your self-evaluation and his/hers observation of your work in the class.

Oral Exams

Your midterm oral exam is a video diary and your final oral exam is an interview with your instructor and another student. Your instructor will announce and explain all relevant information at the appropriate time. You must practice speaking in class every day in order to be successful during your final oral interview which is worth 12% of your final grade.

Writing Assignments

At least two of your writing assignments will be compositions of different genres (letters, stories, descriptions, etc.) to be completed during class time on writing workshop days. Your instructor will help you prepare and provide more specific guidelines when the day draws near. Your final writing assignment will be a collaborative project with one or more classmates to be presented orally before the end of the term. First two writing assignments involve a rewrite and resubmission phase, unless you receive an A (93 or higher) on the first draft, in which case rewrites are voluntary. Your componimento will be worth 40 points and your revisione will be worth 10 points. The last writing assignment will be worth 50 points and it will have just one version.

Canvas lectures and quizzes

Canvas lectures and quizzes must be done in timely fashion since they constitute an essential part of your daily preparation. This is why you will receive a 20% reduction penalty on your quiz for each day you are late submitting it. After five days you will receive 0%.

Co-Curricular Activities / Cultural Events in Italian at IU

We facilitate multiple activities every semester that promote Italian culture. You have to attend at least one of them. Once you attend your mandatory Circolo, in order to get 40 points you must submit a short summary (200 words) in which you include the description of the event and things that you have learned. Your instructor will inform you about all of them when the time comes. You can also learn about our program and Italian culture by liking our Facebook page: Italian Program Facebook Page or following us on Twitter @IU_Italian

If you attend five events of Circolo Italiano and post five paragraphs, in Italian, about your experience, you will receive 30 bonus points (on top of the 40 mandatory points for one your obligatory event). In order to receive 30 bonus points you must submit on Canvas 100 words for each event after the first one. NO partial credits will be assigned if you attend less than 5 circoli.

Sexual Misconduct

IU does not tolerate acts of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment and all forms of sexual violence. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, or know someone who has, the University can help. It is important to know that federal regulations and University policy require faculty to promptly report complaints of potential sexual misconduct known to them to their campus Deputy Title IX Coordinator(s) to ensure that appropriate measures are taken and resources are made available. The University will work with you to protect your privacy by sharing information with only those that need to know to ensure the University can respond and assist. If you are seeking help and would like to speak to someone confidentially, you can make an appointment with a Mental Health Counselor on campus. Find more information about sexual violence, including campus and community resources here.

Accessibility and Accommodations

Indiana University is committed to creating a learning environment and academic community that promotes educational opportunities for all individuals, including those with disabilities. Students requesting disability-related accommodations and/or services should contact Office of Disability Services for Students at (812)855-7578 or visit the website for Disability Services for Students \(Disability Services for Students\). Course directors are asked to make reasonable accommodations, upon request by the student or the university, for such disabilities. It is the responsibility of students with documented physical or learning disabilities seeking accommodation to notify their course directors and the relevant campus office that deals with such cases in a timely manner concerning the need for such accommodation. Indiana University will make reasonable accommodations for access to programs, services, and facilities as outlined by applicable state and federal laws.
