Required Text: Sentieri. Attraverso l'Italia contemporanea, 2nd Edition Julia M. Cozzarelli
Vista Higher Learning . Textbook + access code for Supersite.

Welcome to M150 Beginning Italian II. This is a computer enhanced course, which is a combination of traditional classroom time and online instruction. It involves independent work by students, a portion of which will be performed online on the Textbook Sentieri Vista Higher Learning Supersite. Part of the work will be done in class with your instructor (MWF), and part will be done online. This will include reading, listening, completing exercises, posting writing assignments and recording your speech on the Supersite.

This syllabus gives precise day-to-day instructions. Homework and practice on the Supersite and Canvas is assigned every day of the week in order to guarantee daily interaction in the target language. Practice and homework must be completed by the due dates indicated on the Supersite and Canvas. No late work will be accepted for grading.

WRITTEN FINAL EXAM:

ON BEHALF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH AND ITALIAN WE ASK THAT YOU BE AWARE THAT NO SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS CAN BE MADE TO ACCOMMODATE EARLY DEPARTURE.
IT IS STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO CHECK ON REGISTRAR'S WEBSITE
WHEN AND WHERE YOUR EXAM IS GOING TO TAKE PLACE.

Learning Goals and Objectives:

This course follows M100 and continues to present the beginning-level concepts of Italian language, and culture. Students will partake in a variety of assignments and activities designed to increase knowledge, build proficiency, develop greater cultural awareness. If you study and participate in class, by the end of this course you will be able to develop several language skills.

Listening:

You will be able to understand phrases and high frequency vocabulary related to areas of immediate personal relevance (e.g. basic personal and family information, shopping, local area, employment) and identify the main points of simple descriptions, narrations, messages, and announcements.

Reading:

You will be able to read texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday language; understand the description of events, feelings, and wishes in personal communications; and understand, with some guidance, selected poems and shorter literary prose.

Speaking:

You will be able to communicate in routine situations requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. You will be able to engage in short social exchanges; and describe, in simple terms, their family and other people, living conditions, educational background, present and past experiences as well as future plans.

Writing:

You will be able to write notes, messages and letters describing your surroundings and daily routines. You will be able to narrate simple stories and personal experiences using the present, past and future tenses, and begin to formulate basic predictions and hypotheses.

Cultural Awareness:

You will be able to further develop your understanding of the relationship between language and culture. You will be able to identify characteristics, events and places of importance in the target language culture. You will be able to identify similarities and differences between home and target cultures, and give examples of one culture influencing another.

Reflectivity:

You will be able to reflect, in English and, to a limited extent, in the target language, on personal experiences while learning a new language. You will be able to identify your personal learning style and recognize how this can be used to enhance their language-learning experience.

Important Policies and Information:

Attendance:

Students are allowed 3* absences (excused or unexcused), BUT we would prefer that you had none. Daily upkeep and contributions count for a lot in this class. *Each additional absence after 3, unless excused (e.g., illness when accompanied by a medical note or family emergency.), will lower your final grade by 2%.

It is your responsibility to provide the medical note to your instructor within a week of your absence. The note must state that you were unable to attend class due to illness. We will not accept long term medical certificates unless they were processed by the Office of Disability Services for Students and delivered within two weeks from the beginning of the semester.

*In evening sections only 2 absences are permitted.

*If you miss a class it is your responsibility to obtain homework assignments and notes from classmates.

Lates. Of course, we prefer you come late than not at all (meglio tardi che mai), but three lates equal one absence.

Final exam policy

A student who:

- has NO MORE THAN ONE absence, and
- earns an average grade of 90% or higher on two unit exams and two in class quizzes will have the option to be excused from taking the final exam. Students who earn and choose this option will be awarded a grade equal to the average of his/her three unit exam grades on the final exam. However, they must attend the class until the last day of the semester and complete the final exam review. If you decide to take the final exam, you will receive the grade that you earn on it, whether it is higher or lower than the average of your three unit exams.

Make-up Assessments

Make-up exams, quizzes, or other assessments. There will be no make-up exams or quizzes, except in extraordinary cases (e.g., illness accompanied by a medical note, family emergency, etc.).

Incompletes

A final grade of I (Incomplete) is rarely assigned in this course, and may only be considered an option in cases where an unexpected, extreme situation—such as a personal or medical emergency—prevents a student from completing the final major assignment(s) of the course. A student must be passing in order to be considered for an incomplete and the request must be made after the automatic “W” deadline has passed. A petition for an incomplete must be accompanied by appropriate and verifiable documentation and should be presented to your instructor.

Note: Incompletes are not issued due to chronic missed work or absences over the course of the semester; a “withdrawal” is more appropriate for such students (see next section).

Withdrawals

The last day to withdraw from the course with an automatic “W” is Sunday, October 21st. You will have received several grades by then and should be able to make an informed decision about continuing in the course.

Cutting and Pasting & Google Translator

Cutting and pasting from any website without proper bibliographical citation—even a two- or three-word phrase—is considered plagiarism. Please do not even attempt this; it too will be considered an infraction of the University Honesty Policy. See your teacher right away if you have difficulty expressing in Italian what you would like to say in your componimenti or presentazioni.

Google Translator or any similar translation tools (human or electronic source) are NOT PERMITTED for any aspect of our courses and any evidence that they have been used will be considered an infraction of the University Honesty Policy (resulting in a “0” for the assignment and formal university consequences). Please do not even attempt this. It’s just not worth it.

Homework:

Homework will be assigned every day and will include activities from the Supersite. Supersite work is worth 14% of your final grade and it is essential to complete the homework in order to be successful in this class. The computer graded assignments are for credit only and they will constitute 70% of your grade; the instructor graded activities will be for a grade and they will constitute 30% of your grade. We reserve the right to reset any activities if we notice that you do not put forth your best effort. Your grade will be reduced by 10% of the total earned points for every subsequent day you submit the assignment past the due date.

Preparation & participation

Class preparation and participation are VERY IMPORTANT components of this class and will help you to maximize your ability to communicate in Italian. Class participation is going to help you to be successful during your final oral interview.

Grading of class participation:

“A” student (90-100%)	Initiates interaction, volunteers and participates actively in discussions and group activities. Speaks continuously in Italian for asking/answering questions, in class discussions and group activities. Is always prepared, answers readily when called upon.
“B” student (80-89%)	Participates actively in group activities, but passively in discussions. Occasionally resorts to English, but continuously speaks in Italian when asking/answering questions, in group activities and during class discussions. Is almost always prepared, usually answers when called upon.
“C” student (70-79%)	Participates more passively than actively in group activities and discussions. Often resorts to English and is often not prepared for class, sometimes unable to answer.
“D” student (60-69%)	Rarely participates in group activities and class discussions, and is generally unprepared for class. Speaks mostly English and is mostly unable to answer.

You are expected to prepare and review the topics indicated under the In classe column before coming to class. Watch the lectures that introduce the material (Canvas: Pages) prior to coming to class. This daily assignment is KEY to your success in this course! You will self-evaluate your preparation and participation throughout the semester and your instructor will assign you a grade based on your self-evaluation and his/hers observation of your work in the class.

Oral Exams:

Your midterm oral exam is a video diary, and your final oral exam is an interview with your instructor and another student. Your instructor will announce and explain all relevant information at the appropriate time. You must practice speaking in class every day in order to be successful during your final oral interview, which is worth 12% of your final grade.

Writing Assignments:

At least two of your writing assignments will be compositions of different genres (letters, stories, descriptions, etc.) to be completed during class time on writing workshop days. Your instructor will help you prepare, and he/she will provide more specific guidelines when the day draws near. Your final writing assignment will be a collaborative project with one or more classmates to be presented orally before the end of the term. Your first two writing assignments involve a rewrite and resubmission phase, unless you receive an A (93 or higher) on the first draft, in which case rewrites are voluntary. Your componimento will be worth 40 points and your revisione will be worth 10 points. Your last componimento will be worth 50 points and it will have only one version.

Canvas lectures and quizzes:

Canvas lectures and quizzes must be done in timely fashion since they constitute an essential part of your daily preparation. This is why you will receive 20% deduction penalty on your quiz for each day you are late submitting it. After five days you will receive 0%.

Co-Curricular Activities / Cultural Events in Italian at IU

We facilitate multiple activities every semester that promote Italian culture. You have to attend at least one of them. Once you attend your mandatory circolo, in order to get 40 points you must submit a short summary (200 words) in which you include the description of the event and things that you have learned. Your instructor will inform you about all of them when the time comes. You can also learn about our program and Italian culture by liking our Facebook page: Italian Program Facebook Page

or following us on Twitter @IU_Italian

If you attend five events of Circolo Italiano and post five paragraphs, in Italian, about your experience, you will receive 30 bonus points (on top of the 40 mandatory points for one your obligatory event). In order to receive 30 bonus points you must submit on Canvas 100 words for each event after the first one.

NO partial credits will be assigned if you attend less than 5 circoli.

Sexual Misconduct

IU does not tolerate acts of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment and all forms of sexual violence. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, or know someone who has, the University can help. It is important to know that federal regulations and University policy require faculty to promptly report complaints of potential sexual misconduct known to them to their campus Deputy Title IX Coordinator(s) to ensure that appropriate measures are taken and resources are made available. The University will work with you to protect your privacy by sharing information with only those that need to know to ensure the University can respond and assist. If you are seeking help and would like to speak to someone confidentially, you can make an appointment with a Mental Health Counselor on campus. Find more information about sexual violence, including campus and community resources here.

Accessibility and Accommodations:

Indiana University is committed to creating a learning environment and academic community that promotes educational opportunities for all individuals, including those with disabilities. Students requesting disability-related accommodations and/or services should contact Office of Disability Services for Students at (812)855-7578 or visit the website for Disability Services for Students. Course directors are asked to make reasonable accommodations, upon request by the student or the university, for such disabilities. It is the responsibility of students with documented physical or learning disabilities seeking accommodation to notify their course directors and the relevant campus office that deals with such cases in a timely manner concerning the need for such accommodation. Indiana University will make reasonable accommodations for access to programs, services, and facilities as outlined by applicable state and federal laws.
