Department of Department of French and Italian
M100 (Beginning Online Italian I)

Required Text: Sentieri. Attraverso l'Italia contemporanea, 2nd edition.

Julia M. Cozzarelli, Vista Higher Learning . Textbook + access code for Supersite.

Welcome to M100: Beginning Italian I Online Course. This course focuses on developing students' competency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. M100 will be held entirely online. You will not need to be physically present on campus in order to be a student in this class. You will use the Textbook Sentieri published by Vista Higher Learning and the Supersite. You will need to purchase access to Supersite with your textbook and to activate your Zoom account (available to Indiana University students for free). Since the course will be held entirely online, it requires students to work independently and follow a very structured syllabus. Each day you will be involved in a variety of online tasks, such as reading, listening, completing exercises, posting writing assignments, and recording responses on the Supersite. Twice a week during our virtual classroom time, you will meet with your instructors and a small number of classmates on Zoom. Your instructors will be available for online office hours twice a week.

A. Course Requirements and Information

1. Textbook:

B. Course Structure & Policies:

I. Supersite and homework

Each day you will be asked to follow a carefully structured syllabus and get involved in a variety of online tasks on Supersite. You must work independently and follow the syllabus. Homework will be due once a week and will include activities from the Supersite, that you must submit by the date you find on the site. No late work will be accepted. Remember: your Supersite work is 20% of your final grade! The computer-graded assignments are for credit only, and they will constitute 70% of your grade; the instructor-graded activities will be for a grade, and they will constitute 30% of your grade. We reserve the right to reset any activities if we notice that you do not put your best effort. This is why you will receive a 10% reduction penalty for each day you are late submitting assignments. YOU SHOULD DO YOUR HOMEWORK EVERY NIGHT. IF YOU WAIT FOR THE EVENING IT IS DUE, YOU WILL GET FRUSTRATED AND WILL NOT BE ABLE TO COMPLETE IT.

II. Virtual Class (once a week)

On Tuesdays you will log in to Zoom to meet with your instructor and other students. You can choose between two meeting times: either Tuesday 9:30-10:45 am or Tuesday 7:15-8:30 pm. You need to make the decision which meeting time works best for you and follow that time throughout the course. Occasional changes are possible, but the instructor needs to be aware of how many students are going to attend each session. Please bring a current picture ID to the first Virtual Class meeting.

III. Participation

Although this is an online course, presence and participation in Virtual Class is mandatory, and it is part of your grade. During online meetings you need to speak Italian, participate and have fun. The Virtual classroom is for practicing speaking skills. The instructor will address the grammar in a very concise fashion. It is your responsibility to study and learn the grammar before coming to class. Do not forget: it is an ONLINE course. You are allowed ONE excused absence. For each additional, unexcused absence, your final grade will be lowered by 4%. It is your responsibility to provide a medical note to your instructor within a week of your absence. The note must state that you were unable to attend class that day (neither in the morning nor in the evening) due to illness.

IV. Office Hours

The instructor will hold office hours (using Zoom or in person – if requested). If you are on campus, you can set up a face-to-face appointment with your instructor.

V. Grading and Communication

The instructor will check and reply to email daily, as well as check for submissions and correct Supersite activities every day. For longer assignments, such as Exams, Video

Diaries or Writings, the instructor might require up to a full week to give you thorough and comprehensive feedback. If you ever need any help or have problems with assignments, please, contact your instructor via email.

VI. Mini Lectures

You will be asked to watch mini lectures that will be posted on Canvas. These lectures cover the most demanding grammar points, give you more opportunities to practice, and provide you with the real classroom experience. After watching the lecture you will have to take a short Canvas quiz, which will allow you to check if you understand the material (these quizzes are mandatory, and they are part of your grade).

VII. Quizzes

You will take four chapter quizzes in this class. All of these exams will be completed, online and you will have to take them during Virtual Class meetings (dates on the syllabus) with your video camera turned on and while sharing your screen. You are not allowed to use any help during the quizzes. You must bring your ID to each quiz.

VIII. Writings

You will write three essays during the semester, and you will submit them through email. The instructor will give you feedback and you will have to re-write your essays, making appropriate corrections.

IX. 5 Videotaped Diaries

You will have a topic assigned to you, and you will be asked to make a 3-4 minute video recording on this topic. Video recordings are due Saturdays at 10pm. You will have a classmate assigned for each project, and you will have to watch your classmate's video, correct possible mistakes and be ready to summarize it during the virtual class. No reading allowed.

X. Final oral exam

For this assignment you will have to meet with your instructor and speak for 15 minutes. The instructor will ask you several questions regarding the use of the vocabulary and structures you have learned during the semester. In order to prepare for this exam you must: study regularly, participate during virtual class, memorize and review structures and vocabulary learned during the semester.

XI. Day by day assignments

You will find day-to-day assignments on Canvas: Modules. You must follow the order listed per each day: watch online lecture, take online quiz, read textbook pages and complete practice exercises, at the end, practice with websam exercises. Detailed assessment descriptions are available on Canvas: Modules as well.

XII. Co-Curricular Activities / Cultural Events in Italian at IU

We facilitate multiple every semester that promote Italian culture. Your instructor will inform you about all of them when the time comes. You can also learn about our program and Italian culture by liking our Facebook page: Italian Program at IU Facebook Page or follow us on Twitter @IU_Italian.

XIII. Disability Services for Students

Indiana University is committed to creating a learning environment and academic community that promotes educational opportunities for all individuals, including those with disabilities. Students requesting disability-related accommodations and/or services should contact Office of Disability Services for Students at (812)855-7578 or visit Office of Disability Services for Students. Course directors are asked to make reasonable accommodations, upon request by the student or the university, for such disabilities. It is the responsibility of students with documented physical or learning disabilities seeking accommodation to notify their course directors and the relevant campus office that deals with such cases in a timely manner concerning the need for such accommodation. Indiana University will make reasonable accommodations for access to programs, services, and facilities as outlined by applicable state and federal laws.

C. Honesty Policy:

A. Cheating

Cheating is considered to be an attempt to use or provide unauthorized assistance, materials, information, or study aids in any form and in any academic exercise or environment.

- a. A student must not use external assistance on any “in-class” or “take-home” examination, unless the instructor has specifically authorized external assistance. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, the use of tutors, books, notes, calculators, computers, and wireless communication devices.
- b. A student must not use another person as a substitute in taking an examination or quiz, nor allow other persons to conduct research or to prepare work, without advanced authorization from the instructor to whom the work is being submitted.
- c. A student must not collaborate with other persons on a particular project and submit a copy of a written report that is represented explicitly or implicitly as the student’s individual work.
- d. A student must not steal examinations or other course materials, including, but not limited to, physical copies and photographic or electronic images.

B. Plagiarism

Plagiarism is defined as presenting someone else’s work, including the work of other students, as one’s own. Any ideas or materials taken from another source for either written or oral use must be fully acknowledged, unless the information is common knowledge. What is considered “common knowledge” may differ from course to course.

- a. A student must not adopt or reproduce ideas, opinions, theories, formulas, graphics, or pictures of another person without acknowledgment.

- b. A student must give credit to the originality of others and acknowledge indebtedness whenever:
- directly quoting another person’s actual words, whether oral or written;
  - using another person’s ideas, opinions, or theories;
  - paraphrasing the words, ideas, opinions, or theories of others, whether oral or written;
  - borrowing facts, statistics, or illustrative material; or
  - offering materials assembled or collected by others in the form of projects or collections without acknowledgment
